【1】 次の英文を読んで問いに答えなさい。

A long time ago in India, there was a great king. The king had three sons. Hussein was the oldest son, Ali was the middle son and Ahmed was the youngest son. Like their father, all three of the sons were smart and kind.

The king had a good friend who *ruled the area next to his area. One day, the king's good friend and his wife died in an accident and *left behind a young daughter named Nisha. The king felt sorry for Nisha and brought her to the palace to *raise her like his own daughter.

As all of the children grew older, the king realized that all three of his sons were in love with Nisha. When she was 18 years old, all three of the sons said to the king that they wanted to marry her. Hussein said, "I should marry Nisha, because I am the oldest son", but Ali and Ahmed said no. The king could not choose which of his sons Nisha should marry, so he said "Nisha will choose!", but all three of the sons said "No". So ① the king created a competition for his sons, and the winner would marry Nisha.

The king told his sons to find the most interesting and *rarest gift they could find for Nisha. The son who found this gift could marry her. So the three sons left at once. They rode for many days to the border of their father's land. They stayed at an *inn here and ② ( meet / decided / this same / to / inn / at ) one year later.

Hussein traveled for many days and nights to a great city in the far north of India. He knew that many *merchants from different area sold in this city, and he was sure that there were interesting and rare things here. One day, a merchant was carrying around an old carpet and said he wanted 50 gold pieces for the carpet. This was a lot of gold for such an old carpet, so Hussein asked the merchant, "Why do you want so much gold for this old carpet? I have seen A (もっと大きくて, そしてもっと美しい) carpets much cheaper!" The merchant said, "This is a magic carpet ( あ )." So the merchant and Hussein sat on the carpet and *in a second they were in Hussein's room at the inn. Hussein ( ③ ) the carpet, and knew he had the best gift.

Ali traveled for many weeks to the country of Persia and, like Hussein, every day he visited the markets to look for something rare. One day he found an *ivory tube for 90 gold pieces. This was very expensive for a simple tube, so he asked the merchant, "What is so special about this tube?" The merchant said, "It is a magic tube ( い )." So Ali looked through the tube and thought about Nisha. At the end of the tube he saw Nisha with her friends. He knew the tube was magic and ( ③ ) it right away.

Ahmed knew that he had to travel very far if he wanted to find the rarest gift. He traveled for many months to a country very far away. He visited many cities and searched many markets. Finally he found a merchant selling a silver apple for 80 gold pieces. Ahmed asked the merchant, "Why is this silver apple so expensive?" The merchant said, "This is a magical apple ( う )." Ahmed did not believe the merchant, so he asked many people in the town. All of them said they were healed by smelling the silver apple. Ahmed ( ③ ) the apple, and began his journey back to his hometown.

One year later the three brothers met at the same inn. ④ ( their / they / each / showed / gifts / other ). Ali's gift was the easiest to show, so Ali gave the tube to Hussein to try it out. Hussein looked through the tube to see Nisha. When he saw her, she was very sick and was going to die. "Brothers, we must hurry home because Nisha is very sick!" All three brothers sat on Hussein's magic carpet and arrived in Nisha's room in a second. Quickly Ahmed held his silver apple under Nisha's nose and she was healed.

Their father said, "All three of you worked together to save Nisha. I love you all and I still cannot choose a husband for her. ( B )."
